Why is EDUINO important?

- Because it is a long-term resource that supports the Ministry of Education's mission for quality, inclusive and comprehensive education, accessible to all students
- Because it supports vulnerable students and increases student enrollment in/completion of education, decreases the dropouts rates and supports teachers and teachers-related legislation in use and in preparation
- Because it is a platform that attracts international recognition based on its success and scalability and because it is a national standard for digital education
- Because it is a brand recognised by users and educators and supported by them,
